

I strongly object to the showing of Janet Jackson's breast on prime-time Super Bowl tv. Very sleazy,base,immoral conduct for a family time show. Also,I object to the FCC ruling last Oct. letting tv and radio use coarse/crude language(including the F-word) anytime day or night. They are using f-ing and freaking already, next they will be out with the actual word on NYPD Blue,etc. It's not an adjective, folks! It is inappropriate an unacceptable at any time in any form! Think of our children and grandchildren! Also, Sen. John Kerry used that word to bash Pres. Bush which was reported on tv. It's time to raise your standards and do a job again, and not just let these incidents slide through. I challenge you to do just that for the American people. Thank you.
